

No case is too big or too small!

Our attorneys provide aggressive legal representation to Los Angeles County residents in civil litigation and appeals. An experienced lawyer will thoroughly assess your situation and offer creative and cost-efficient solutions that bring a swift and effective resolution to your case.

Our lawyers offer counsel to clients facing contract disputes and simple and complex business litigation. This includes:

- Breach of contract
- Breach of fiduciary duty
- Shareholder disputes
- Small business litigation
- Breach of partnership agreements
- Derivative actions
- Libel and slander

At Zola Wegman & Associates APC, you will find a Los Angeles County law firm with extensive trial experience. We meticulously prepare cases for trial and aggressively defend your interests through litigation. You will receive personalized attention from a experienced California civil litigation law firm. We are dedicated to providing experienced and aggressive legal services at fair and reasonable rates.

For more information about how we can help you, contact Zola Wegman & Associates APC by calling 310.285.1766. We offer low cost initial consultations and accept walk-in appointments. Evening and weekend appointments are available by request. All major credit cards are accepted.